My condolences to the whole family. I have many fond memories of Mr. Bob. Not just from the playground, but we did some fishing together also. He had such a big heart, I know he will be missed by many.

My condolences to the family of Mr. Bob. He never forgot the people in his life and was always willing to help anyone. He would always ask if he could sell my art for me in the French Quarter without taking a cut. Every time he see me he would say with lots of enthusiasum..."Let me go to the French Quarter and sell your art for you. I could sell a lot!" He just wanted to do that for me. He was a good man. You'll be missed Mr. Bob.
