One thing I will always remember about Chief was his big heart. Myself and my family were always welcome at his home. We were treated as family, it was a treat to swim and eat his boiled crabs that he would make in those big pickle jars with the olive oil and Italian seasoning.

We came to know "PAWPAW" through our lovely Daughter-in-law Jessica and shared our grandkids with him, Madi, Cami and KayKay and Josh...he made everyone feel like family, always had a smile and enjoyed being with family and friends...we will miss you PawPaw but know that you are in a well deserved place beside your past ones that were waiting for you...see you there later!!!
