“ I was getting my haircut yesterday and brought your name in up conversation, saying how I've been requesting you to cut my hair for awhile now, then the barber told me you passed. I was in total disbelief.. im going to miss having ginger cut my hair.. she always did such a great job and knew how to keep a fun conversation the whole time too.. she was very spunky and outgoing, always talking about her children or making a little laugh. People like ginger are beacons of light to the rest of us.. never a dull moment, always radiating energy.. Rest in peace ginger

“ I just found out about Ginger on Thursday - 06/13/19 - I was going to get my hair done and was stunned! I lost my 87 year old mother on 04/28/19 and I wanted to let her know and get a warm hug from her. She always asked about her which attributes to her sweet character. To her children, she ALWAYS talked about you - she loved and adored you all. My heart is so sad - I will miss her. Heaven has gained a sassy Angel!

“ I just saw this on Facebook and I'm in disbelief. We just spoke on Messenger on the 2nd. I'm so saddened by this news. I first met Ginger her freshman year at Bonnabel in Biology class. Ginger was one of the sweetest and most caring people I knew and she loved everyone. Heaven has definitely gained an angel. I'm going to miss you my friend. My heart goes out to the whole family.

“ You weren't supposed to go so soon. You were a ray of sunshine in the rain, a smile that could light up the darkness, a warm hug, a silly something to giggle about, a beautiful genuine giving helping loving soul. I will miss your random messages and texts that always reminded me that joy comes from true friends no matter how tough things are. I love you, my purple bouncing bunny girlfrennnnn. Fly high ! I hope Heaven was ready !!

“ God sent out for one of his most precious Angels to bring you to him Ms Ginger, You were and always have been a great woman, you worked with my mother for years and when I use to live close by I use to always come visit and sometimes I'd get to have lunch with you in the back. You Always! were so giving and so sweet, never a dull moment with you. No matter what I always had a great laugh with you and my mom when I'd come to visit. Then years later when I had my kids I remember introducing them to you and you just adored my little family so much, especially my kids hair, you loved seeing how curly and long my sons hair was. You always had the brightest nicest station at the salon to me. Only because for every holiday you made it so exciting in that shop to decorate and be so outgoing with your clients. You truly will be missed my love...And to your family I'm very sorry and hurt for your loss she really was a very sweet person and always gave great advise, may y'all try and stay strong its never easy losing a good person like Ginger. Love you forever and Always Ms Ginger.

Sincerely,
Anisa Vega

“ I am so very saddened by this news about our beloved friend and Seton seagull, Ginger. Ginger was a very sweet, caring and fun person. We shared a lot of laughs and memories that I will never forget. If only the walls of Seton Hall could talk? Ginger will be missed dearly by all of her fellow classmates at our upcoming 35 year reunion! RIP Ginger! My heart goes out to all of her beloved family members. Please know that she will certainly be missed, but never forgotten. She had such a memorable laugh and I know she brightened the lives of everyone she knew.
