“ I will forever remember Buddy as a person who managed to see the best in every person. He loved people, laughter, and mixing the two together for his enjoyment and the enjoyment of those around him. Buddy was a fitting nickname because he was your "Buddy". He was the great sportsman who loved sharing stories of his many adventures.

Although it had been a long time since I last saw him, he was never completely out of my thoughts. Rest in Peace cousin.

“ God bless Buddy. We spent a lot of time playing in the cow pasture that was between our two houses. That pasture is now EJ High. The whole family was a joy to know and visit. I will always remember Buddy and be thankful for our friendship as young boys and teenagers.

“ Clarence and Barbara Letort remember all the fun times they had with Buddy picnicking, hunting, and fishing.

Clarence recalls Buddy showing him how to water ski and duck hunt and they enjoyed many laughs when Buddy shot a limit of ducks while Clarence shot none.

On another occasion, Buddy and Clarence were on a fishing trip and were on a catching spree when Buddy mentioned that it was time to leave because he was out of beer. His beer was more important than catching all the fish.

Clarence and Barbara send their deepest sympathy to the Hagstette family. They will forever cherish their memories with Buddy. May God bless each of you during this time.
