

Philip Alfred Genovese, III

December 22, 1956 - May 19, 2019

Philip Alfred Genovese III, born on December 22, 1956, passed away on Sunday, May 19, 2019. He joins his father Philip, Jr., mother Joycelyn Roth, and brother Anthony, Sr. He is survived by his brother Raymond, sister Jackie, sister-in-law Karen (Anthony, Sr.), sister-in-law Wanda (Raymond), nieces Lauren, Madison, Morgan, and nephews Anthony, Jr., Justin, and Vincent. He is also survived by many more loving family and friends who will sorely miss his one of a kind spirit, voice, and storytelling.

“Uncle Phil” possessed a brilliant mind, quick wit, sharp tongue, and the ability to build just about anything with no need for a blueprint. Those who knew him know there will never be anyone quite like him. We lost much in Philip’s passing but have countless stories to share about the man who often made us laugh so hard it hurt. The family would like to personally thank, Maria, of Lakeside Hospice and the nursing staff of Royal Palms Nursing Home for the care they provided to Philip and guidance they gave to our family.

“ Rest in peace my friend. It's been years but we shared some wild and crazy time back in the 70's. Behave yourself when you get to the big fishing pond in the sky and have a pole waiting for me . lol Your friend, Bruce Arsenaux

“ How do you say good bye to a dear friend it isn't easy but Phil you were really one of a kind I always have such a good time with you. My trips to New Orleans will never be the same you coming into town to see me. Me going to see you finding you at times it got to be an art form it was like looking for Carmen sandiogo. But we always managed to hook up. I'm really going to miss you buddy but you aren't in pain anymore. That's the only comfort I have out of these circumstances. So long Phil till we meet again rest assured I'll find you.
