“ Nell, I was so sorry to hear of the loss of your beloved, Bob. Please know that you're in my thoughts and prayers. Peace be with you.

Although I hadn't really seen Bob in recent years, I have fond memories of working with him trying to set up a civic association for our neighborhood. He was hard working, civic-minded, and just a genuinely nice person. The world needs more people like Bob.

“ Bob was the first familiar face my wife & I saw on the most tragic day of our life. He was there to console us when we were riddled in shock. We cherished his compassion & friendship for many years after that. He was a humorous & brilliant story teller. Always able to lift my spirits when I was down. There are people in our lives that leave a lasting impression. Bob was one of those people. Rest well my friend & say hello to Devin & Jose for me.

“ My dear Brother Bob. I'm so glad the last few years we were able to solidify our love as brothers. Whether it was talking and laughing about our crazy life in WV, our years at the orphanage or listening to you after a missed shot on the golf course, you leave behind strong fond memories of how you touched our lives. Special thanks and appreciation for Nell's love for you for so many years. God apparently needed, and called Home, one of His special angels. You are loved and will be greatly missed, but promise you won't laugh when you look down on us on the 18th green...love you my brother...Gene

“ Bob, I met you when you and Nell started dating and from that day on you always welcomed me and my family in into your life you shared together with Nell. You were always there with open arms no matter what was happening. You were so funny, dramatic, spontaneous, and such a loving human being and your heart lead you to always step up and do whatever you could in any situation. I remember Sunday football you were a hoot but by the end of the day, we could say Nell was exhausted. You left me with so many memories of you. You will be missed by many but forgotten by no one. You will remain in our hearts and every time we think of you a "beaming smile" will come to show because we all shared an awesome relationship with you at some time in our lives. Soar like an eagle my friend and know we will forever MISS YOUR PRESENCE, today and every day you are not with us. Sending my Love to Nell and the family and keeping you all in my heart and prayers during your time of mourning. I Love you Bob and you will remain in my heart forever. RIP My Dear Friend until we meet again! Hugs To Heaven XOXO Love always Darlene
