“ Today is the day we are suppose to say goodbye. I like to think of it as, until we meet again. I know you are busy catching up with all those loved ones that preceded you to heaven and all those furbabies are so happy to be with you again. Please wrap your arms around my children, their father, uncle, Pawpaw and their children, let them know you don't want them to grieve your arrival to heaven, you want them to celebrate your life by keeping your memories alive.

We share 38 years of awesome, happy, sad and devastating memories together. I have to say my fondest one, is you accepting me into your life like I was one of your own. You were there for me for the birth of each of my children, your grandchildren. When my own mother passed away you were there. That meant a whole lot to me. Although these past 7 years we grew apart, I still loved and love you like my own mother. I feel honored to have called you my mother in law for 28 years, but to me that's just a title. You will always be my mother in law. I will forever cherish my last memory with you.

Do know, I will always keep your memories alive, your great grandchildren will know what a kind, loving, forgiving, compassionate person you were!

Until we meet again, love always, Angie

“ Ms. Sharon, it took several days before writing this. You are and was my very best friend, besides my mother - in - law .
I first met you when I was a teenager and immediately thought you were the sweetest person. You had such a love for life and fun !!
Then we had several years of not being in touch, but I always thought of you and Mr. Bobby. I then came back into your life and ever since we were best friends. I loved taking you to parades or out to lunch. We always had a great time. I will miss you dearly, our talks and your love and concern for so many people. God is very fortunate to have an angel like you. You touched my life, my children's lives and anyone you came in contact with. You were the sweetest, kindness, most caring person I knew and I'm glad you were my mother in law , but , most importantly your best friend.
I love you and I will always carry your memory in my heart forever

“ Miss Sharon, you were the mawmaw I never had. I am so grateful for the years I have had with you. You loved all of us so much. I am in shock and heartbroken, but I know you're up there with your momma and all the dogs. Pookie, cinnamon, Roxy, Paris and more. I know you're not in pain and are looking over us. You're probably laughing at all of us crying while you're up there happy. I am going to miss you so much. You are the most kind, care-free, loving person I know. With a heart of Gold. There is no one out there like you. You're one of a kind. I'm so jealous of heaven. I wish I could have one of your hugs just one more time. I'll see you again someday Mawmaw. I love you

“ Bobbie and family so sorry for your loss. Sharon was one of the kindest people I have ever known. She was always the peacemaker. She loved Bobbie and her family with all her heart and soul. Heaven has gained another saint. You are already in the presence of God. Prayers for the family. Love Jackie

“ Mamaw, I love you more than I can ever explain. You are my best friend and I know you are now my Guardian Angel. You are watching over me, Mia, Jason and everybody else in our entire family. You are so happy to be reunited with Nanaw and it feels so selfish to want you back so badly. I will miss our daily phone calls and being able to just stop by any time, day or night, to hear your stories and just hang out. I can't wait to be reunited again some day but until then don't worry, Me and Mia will take good care of Papaw for you. I love you so much Mamaw. You are m Sunshine, my only sunshine, you make me happy, when skies are gray. You'll never know dear, how much I love you, so please don't take my sunshine away.

Ps - now you get a front row seat to all of Mia's practices and recitals

“ Me and Sharon have been lifelong friends! When we were in Highschool and she was first starting to date Bobby, I would spend the night at her house, so that I could help her to sneak out of her house to go see Bobby play drums at the fun house late at night! We had some great times and made wonderful memories! If anyone was able to call her friend they were truly fortunate for she was a real friend and would do anything for her friends. I will forever miss my dear friend, who sure is playing cards (rummy) in Heaven! I know she's happy to be reunited with her Mom, my part-time Mom Pauline Lawrence! I'll love dear Sharon!

“ I am so sadden to hear about my best friend in the world. Sharon and I have had some good times. She was one of a kind. Never be another like her. She was full of love. She loved her boy's (Mark & Keith). Heck Sharon loved everyone. I remember one time that her and I was running out the front door to see if Bobby and Mike was coming down the road, and sure enough they were. Sharon told me to come on and we ran back in the house then she told me to not say a word when they got in the house.....lol She went off like a banny rooster. We laughed about that everyone we got together. There was so many more memories of her and I. I will cherish everyone of them till I see her again. I love you Sharon and I always will. Rest in peace my Angle !
