“ Adrian was such a huge part of my life since she worked for my family for so many years. I will forever treasure the wonderful memories I have of her. Her contagious laugh, and the love she gave to me and my siblings will live within all of us forever. She was such a treasure! My heartfelt condolences go out out to Glen and the rest of her family. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My sincerest condolences. May God bless her and her loved ones. Adrian is forever alive in my heart and in my memories. Her love was unconditional and her support was invaluable to me. I loved her so very much.

The last time I saw her was in 1985, but she has never left me...so great and positive was her hand in my upbringing.
