“ Well Dad, I guess you are watching whats happening. Is this how you really wanted it. why did you not love me unconditionally. Why did you not want to be a part of life, like i tried so hard to be part of yours. I do not know what i ever did you for you to removed from you and my sisters life. Sometimes i feel like i should have never been born, it would have been easier for you. I have lost you and the family. I will live with the hurt that you have caused me all my life.

“ ADELE MEYNARD CANTAVESPRI-
DEDICATED TO MY BROTHER, MY FRIEND
THE MEASURE OF A MAN

*Not - How did he die? But - How did he live?
Not - What did he gain? But - What did he give?*

*These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.*

*Not - What was his station? But - had he a heart?
And - How did he play his God-given part?*

*Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer?
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?*

*Not - What was his church? Not - What was his creed?
But - Had he befriended those really in need?*

*Not - What did the sketch in the newspaper say?
But - How many were sorry when he passed away?*

“ Alan,
I will Always Love and Miss you terribly especially on the days we would reach out to each other to talk about our days or what was going on in our lives at that time or sitting by the water garden and grilling out so many memories.

“ MY BROTHER MY BROTHER HOW MUCH I LOVE YOU

*A beautiful garden now stands alone, missing the one who nurtured it
But now he is gone,
His flowers still bloom, and the sun it still shines,
But the rain is like tear drops, for the ones left behind,
The weeds lay waiting to take the gardens beauty away,
But the beautiful memories of its keeper are in our hearts to stay,
he loved every flower even some that were weeds,
So much love he would plant with each little seed,
But just like his flowers he was part of Gods plan,
So when it was his time he reached down his hand,
He look through the Garden searching for the best,
That's when he found my brother Alan, it was his time to rest,
It was hard for those who loved him, to just let him go,
But God had a spot in his garden, that needed a gentle soul,
So when you start missing Alan, remember if you just wait,
When God has a spot in his garden,He will meet you at the gate....
I'll miss our time sitting by the pond watching those silly little Lizards running by. I will never forget you my dear dear brother
I LOVE YOU YOUR LITTLE SIS*
