

Allen Ray Wolff

November 25, 1965 - October 26, 2020

Allen Ray Wolff, 54, was called home to be with the Lord on October 26, 2020. He passed away suddenly in his home due to a heart attack. Allen was born in New Orleans on November 25, 1965, and lived in Metairie most of his life. He was preceded in death by his loving parents, Oscar and Adele Wolff and is survived by his beloved son, Christian Wolff; brothers Louis (Kay), Joseph (late Wanda), Guy (Mary), and Omer (Gaynelle); long-time friend, Carolyn Lee; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Allen was a diehard Saints fan ("Who Dat," as he would say). He was a hardworking salesman around the metropolitan New Orleans area, last employed at Bayou Ford. He was always well-dressed, very romantic, and loved to travel. Allen loved fine dining. He had a heart of gold, was a giver of many gifts, and showed much love to the ones dearest to his heart. Allen loved animals, but the love he had for his only son, Christian, was unmatched: "That's my boy there," he would say. When Christian was young, Allen would bring him to work with him. Allen is definitely going to be missed.

Family and friends are invited to join the graveside service to be held at Greenwood Cemetery at 121 City Park Avenue in New Orleans on Friday, November 6, 2020 at 1:00 p.m. to be followed by a reception in Metairie. “ I had been freind's with Allen for 45 years. He was always there in my times of need and the best freind I ever had. He went out of his way to help others and was a devout Christian. I pray we meet again in the next life.

“ He would randomly send me selfies with his dog haha. He would go out of his way and do random acts of kindness, like cooking a bunch of food and offering to bring it to work for lunch. He was a great cook too!

“ I met Allen as a co-worker, but we quickly became good friends. We shared a lot of laughs and had good conversations about life. It was very clear to me that the most important part of his life was his son, Christian. He left us too soon, and he will be greatly missed. Thank you for your friendship, Allen.

“ Allen was the best freind I ever had. We had known each other since we were 15 years old. I cannot count the good & bad times we shared throughout the years, or the number of times Allen was there for me when I needed someone most. Sorrow doesn't begin to describe the feeling of loss I'm experiencing with his unexpected passing, while in the prime of his life. Allen was a good son, father and freind, and I pray one day we will see each other again.
