

Alphonse Brown

September 15, 1951 - September 30, 2021

Alphonse Brown, age 70, passed away peacefully September 30, 2021 at his home in Metairie, La. He was born on September 15, 1951 in New Orleans, La. to Esther Lee Harris and Charles Brown.

Alphonse who was also known as "Big AL", was a strong, kind, loving, and supportive father. He loved to love on his family. He was a true believer that the Love of a Family is Life's Greatest Blessing. He enjoyed listening to soulful music especially some Frankie Beverly and Maze; "Joy and Pain" always made him groove to the beat. Also, socializing with the family and friends from his old neighborhood Little Farms/Bunche Village would always be the highlight of his day. He was a self employed for many years but his true passion was cars especially repairing them and could often be found under the hood of a car when he wasn't at home Alphonse loved the lord and one of his favorite Bible verses that he would recite, Psalms 27:12 "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?" the Lord is the stronghold of my life; whom shall I be afraid?

Alphonse was predeceased by his son, Benjamin Joseph and his two brothers, Lee Arthur Harris and Larry Joe Harris. He is survived by his sister, Etta Varnado; two brothers, Albert James and Raymond James; his five children, Malisha Brown-White(Aubrey White), Alphonse Granger, Romaine Joseph (Tabitha Joseph), Keshia Granger-Owoniya (Akeem Owoniya), and Myron Granger. Also survived by nine grandchildren, four great grandchildren, a host of nephews, nieces, and cousins and his partner, Sharon Thomas.
