“ Dear Zeringue family: We have you in our prayers and thoughts at this time of so much sorrow , for our Lord gave everyone of you strength , guidance, courage and a clear mind to guide you all to go step by step what to do the correct decisions for the best for all and Ms Gloria.

I saw. Him a few times , very proud of his family , very proud of all his grandchildren's and their accomplishments. Love his garden and work at it ... it was his scape and he was great at it . And the love to Ms Gloria very unique. And now He is resting in peace. And our hearts are broken 💔 and so much emptiness, but only time, prayers and God can fix that and it takes a long long time. Received all our prayers , deepest sympathies and our love for everyone of you ,

*Sincerely and in prayers
