“ My beautiful Aunt Alyce, I still can't believe you are gone. My heart is broken in so many pieces. I have been very blessed to have known you and have you as my aunt. I remember as a little girl going to my dads for a visit and I would be able to visit with you and Uncle Guy. I am very sad but also happy for I know you are home with God and you are in a much better place then all of us. Your Faith and Trust in God was so strong and the love of Jesus always shined through you and I will forever be grateful to God to have been able and bless to be your niece. I will miss you dearly but I do have many great memories to keep in my heart of you. I love you more Aunt Alyce, until we meet again in Paradise. Now you Rest In Peace, God saw you were tired and that you did what he wanted you to do here on earth and he said it was time for you to go home, back to him. My prayers are for Uncle Guy and my beautiful cousins, Guy, Paul, Roni & Christine my name sake and all your grandchildren as well as the rest of the family. I will never say goodbye, I will say until we meet again..

My thoughts and prayers are for you all. Though I we hadn't met personally, through Roni, I knew she was an unselfish woman dedicated mother and wife. The warmth I experienced throughout the Facebook postings, I saw a brave and courageous woman and knew I liked her. Proverbs.31:10 Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. 11. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good & not evil all the days of her life. She seeketh wool & flax & worth willing with her hands. She is like the merchant ships: she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth early while it is yet night and giveth meat to her household. She considereth the field and buys it, with the fruit of her hands, she planteth a vineyard. She births her loins with strength and strengths her arms. She stretcheth out her hands to the poor. Her husband is known in the gates when he sits with the elders of the land. Strength & honor are her clothing, & when she opens the mouth is wisdom & her tongue is the law of kindness. So thank you Mrs. LeVenía. your journey will always be remembered in mine. Sincerely love and prayers of comfort during the most difficult time in yo

You are all in my thoughts & prayers. While I hadn't seen Mrs. Alyce in many many years I'd get updates on her & Christine from Roni. Rest In Peace Mrs. Alyce, in addition to your many titles you were the World's Greatest Girl Scout Leader. I pray for God's Grace for the LaVenía Family.
