“ Dad I'm missing you and Tony and Mom. I truly hope i told you enough how much i loved you all.

I heard a friend say the other day when i was mourning moms 4 month passing and Tony's upcoming 1 year some very impactful words.

I'm always amazed how a mother can raise many children alone while the father worked, and yet in her elders years she only has 1 that will tKe care of her.

Mom you have no idea how much David and I both miss you. We love you so much.

Dad, we were 2 peas in a pod.

Tony, you weren't just my brother but my best friend. You always had my back when others didn't. You even put yourself in crazy situations to help me.

You are all gone now, I pray every day in church that you have met in heaven and are having an amazing time.

Please be there waiting for me when my day comes. 🙏❤️

“ In 1990 I met Angelo in New Orleans while I was there as a shipboard Radio Officer and many times thereafter whenever I came to town. I had many "chats" with him, Bill Rohrer (W7IJ (SK), Richard VanRee (PA0RVR (SK) and others on Packet and AMTOR modes. Sadly, so many of my friends are now Silent Keys... Some day I will join them for a grand reunion. Rest in Peace my buddies.

At birth we board a train and meet our parents. We believe they will always travel by our side. However, at some station, our parents will step down from the train, leaving us on this journey alone.

As time goes by, other people will board the train, and they will be significant - siblings, friends, the love of your life, children, and many others. Some will step down and leave a permanent vacuum. Others will go so unnoticed that we won't realize they vacated their seats.

The train ride will be full of joy, sorrow, fantasy, expectations, hellos, good-byes, and farewells. A successful ride requires having a good relationship with all passengers. We must give the best of ourselves.

The mystery to everyone is, we do not know at which station we ourselves will step down. So, we must live in the best way, love, forgive, and offer the best of who we are. It is important to do this because when the time comes for us to step down and leave our seat empty we should leave behind beautiful memories for those who will continue to travel on the train of life.

I wish you a joyful journey on the train of life. Reap success and give lots of love.

Lastly, I thank everyone I know for being a passenger on my train.

“ Angelo was a Ham's Ham for sure. Even when he could not get on his radio he found a way to communicate through EchoLink. He had friends all over the world and he enjoyed talking to them. When he could not talk to well he typed his comments to them. He was truly a communicatior and of course, a nice guy. He will be missed.

“ My fond memories of Angelo go WAY back to the late 50's and 60's while I was still in Hammond and remember Angelo as we talked on 40 Meters while he was driving around the New Orleans area. I moved away in early '60's joining the Air Force and settled here in Southern California in the late 70's. He was quite a memorable, congenial person. He will be missed. My condolences to all his family.
