“ So sad to hear you won't be here to make me laugh when things are hectic at work! You always could make light of every situation :) Even if it was you sending me emails stamped not approved on my own time as a joke!

I just saw you last month and am so thankful I did, sure will miss you friend.

Praying for your entire family to feel your spirit around them and be at peace....you are pain-free.....rest in HEAVEN!

“ Ace a/k/a "lil buddy" left this world too early. Seven years of friendship from playing words with friends to entertaining me with crazy emails, IMs and random pics. You would always make me laugh, which is what you loved to do. I am now looking up to the heavens at you and smiling knowing that you are watching over all of your Siemens' friends and family. You will be missed by all the people whose lives you touched. RIP my friend

“ *Our Dear, sweet, kind soul, Ace....
We just talked the other day, can't believe this sad sad news. He was such a delight to be near. His wonderful humor, silliness, and laughter could light up this world, and it did, for sure. He was a blessing to know, to talk to, and I am honored to have known him. Praying for his sweet family. I can see him dancing already in the most beautiful heavens. Praying for you guys, lots of love and peace.*

“ Our dear sweet Ace, you'll never know how many of our Siemens family that you've uplifted and cheered with your humor, your sweet soul, your posts, your emails ...

I was privileged to be your lead P.A. for many years and always enjoyed our conversations and emails (I have 940 emails in my "Ace" folder). Who will harass me now about the Atlanta Falcons? I finally even convinced you to like country music :-)

Even when you were down, you didn't complain. You enjoyed life and pushed on (as evidenced in the attached email when you fell in a winter storm). You just said "dang it" and moved on.

You will truly be missed but never forgotten in our hearts. I can see you dancing in Heaven now, on legs and feet as light as Angel wings. Dance on my friend <3 red this morning!

in fact even. And of course, I slip coming into the plan. I lo “ Ace will be missed , my heart has been heavy since I heard the news. I worked with Ace for over 8 years and even thou we rarely saw each other his Random unplanned e-mails just to say hey were always so welcoming and so kind. I am praying for his family and all that knew him that they know they will meet again and the interim there will be a beautiful Angel watching over all of us. God Speed Ace, see you in the Morning.

“ Ace was one of the first PA's I worked with when I joined Siemens. He was always kind and helpful. Over the years, we became friends and I will miss him dearly! He was an amazing person who always made people feel good and was quick with the humor. This world is a darker place without him in it. My heart and prayers go out to his son and the rest of his family in this time! ”

“ I had the pleasure of working closely with Ace during this Spring outage season. He and I had almost daily calls to go over his project and work through some details. He would always apologize for thinking he took up too much of my time but that could not have been farther from the truth. I enjoyed each and every one of our conversations, especially when we finished covering work and talked about places to go in New Orleans and the Saints. Ace was an excellent and reliable coworker and an even better person. His positive attitude and sense of humor will be missed. ”

“ I had the pleasure of working and training Ace on his first assignment. His beautiful sense of humor and quick one liners always brought a smile to one's face.

My friend it is so difficult to know that you are gone but you will never be forgotten. You will always be with us the "Project Administrators". R.I.P. Ace.

I loved getting his emails when we were all out on assignment. They were always uplifting & made me smile. He would go out of his way to try & help you change your mood if he knew you were having a rough day.
