“ Ann&I were friends from a very young age. We got to know each other really well, when one of her older sisters, Cathy, married my oldest brother, Michael. We used to have sleepovers by Michael&Cathy’s houses&spend time together, talk,&have fun. I’m so saddened 😞 by her passing&sorry, I didn’t keep-in-touch with her, over the years. And before you know it, she’s no longer here. We, just don’t know, what tomorrow will bring! I love 💕 you, Ann. You’re in my heart, ❤️ Marguerite Abbate Weber.

“ To the family, friends, and particularly family caretakers for such a sweet but sad person. Ann’s life had become burdened with hardship and tragedy. I am confident that she is now with God and her pain is being healed.
