“ Dear Jimmy & family,

I just found out this week that Ann passed away in February. I called a few times as the Saints pre-season approached ... Ann & I always shared joys & miseries of the Saints football season together, all the way from Dallas, TX to Metairie!

Now I know Ann, my mom & Joy Manikin are all playing poker together with the angels, cheering for the Saints, and enjoying (pain-free) all the good times they had when I was growing up with them. Will miss our phone calls - even talking with you sometimes.

Please take care of yourself and be happy, as that's what any mom really wants for her children. Hugs ~ Susan Chadwick

“ Since I became part of your family 6 years ago you treated me as your granddaughter. We have had many great memories like when I would do your hair & fix you all up. Or even just random trips to the store, or even just sitting outside talking & watching TV together. You were & still are a amazing woman whom I will miss dearly I will make sure laynee & cayleb know all about you. Watch over us granny Annie we will forever remember you, & love you till we meet again our sweet angel.
