“ One of the things I will miss are the conversations about the family and how she could vividly remember details. She was my information source. Just one aspect of what we've lost.

“ Today we laid you to rest, your finally at peace, today wasnt easy to stay strong i pulled through i kept hearing you tell me to hang in there just as you told me a few weeks ago, I'm not sure how I will be in next few weeks when i look at your number and want to call or when girls do something and want to call you to tell you whats going on in there life you always enjoyed the phone calls, you loved telling stories reminding me of my child hood how i would come to house with my diaper bag and bottles how i would sing by the record player id wake you up telling you the birds are singing and our walk down to neighbors house just to sit on there swing. I'm guna miss you terribly but il let through it you held my hand for 31years now il carry you in my heart for a life time. Until we see each other again, i love you always forever your sweet thang <3 britt

“ Aunt Annette & Family,
I didn't see you often, but when I did I remember we were always surrounded by family and barbecue. You always had a smile that never seemed to change. It was very familiar and constant. I do have a memory but it's not about a particular event. I will always refer to you as the "aunt with all the kids." I wish I could have known you better but what I do know about you will remain a cherished memory.

Love,

Prayers for all of you!

“ Annette there is one memory that stays in my mind. I remember meeting you & Dorie at the casino one weekend. Donnie & Alana also came in, but we didn't tell you. He sat down next to where you were playing. He reached over & started playing with your buttons. You turned around & gave him the ugliest look, then you realized who he was, & gave him the prettiest smile. Your smile is what I will always remember. We love you. Patsy & Leo

“ Mom , you were my mom when I needed you , my concert passenger so I wouldn't have to drive alone ! Dorie and I will treasure every memory of all those over night drives . You showed me how to be a strong independent person and a mom that will be there for my kids , you also showed me that there comes a time to clip the wings and let them be who they are going to be . You showed me what patients looks like but lord knows I am more like Dad in that aspect 0 patients for anyone who will do anything wrong to someone I love . no matter their reason , You had a huge forgiving heart and I try to believe me , but some times it's impossible and i will just take myself out of those situations, you are no longer missing dad and we all knew you were ready , we weren't but you went peacefully and you will forever live in my heart , I love you mom .... Please kiss my peanut for me I know he was the baby you kept seeing taking Billy's glasses off 🥺

“ To my beautiful angel in Heaven. Maw Maw, words could not describe how much I miss you already. There will never be a day that you don't cross my mind. I find comfort in knowing that you are at peace and in Heaven with Paw Paw, Uncle Billy and Rene again. I know you will be right by my side in everything I do in life. In May when I graduate high school I know you will be watching over me as I walk across the stage. I'll always cherish and miss going over to your house every Sunday morning to spend time with you. I love and miss you so much.

Mom,

There will not be a day that goes by that I won't think of you.

You gave us all the love and guidance to make us who we are today. To be loved is to give love and we all know you did that your entire life. I have been blessed to have you in my life for the last 58 years and am proud to call you my mom. You are now back in daddy's arms once again and this time nothing can SEPARATED y'all. I am going to leave you with three words that should have been said more often. I LOVE YOU.

Love Always and Forever
