“ *Tony and I met at the walking track at Lafreniere Park. We didn't walk together. He walked too fast for me. We became a group of friends, which didn't take long when a group of us walked everyday. Tony was a wonderful friend. We would go to the movies, sometimes alone, sometimes in a group. We became drinking buddies on Friday nights. Martinis at the Fox and Hound in Elmwood and Outback! We would go to dinner as a group. I would have them over to my home. We both liked watching "South Park" and would get on the phone and laugh together!
I met my husband 22years ago but kept in touch with him
He would come over to the house for boat parades and parties. I had Jason and Tony over Sunday afew weeks ago. I so much enjoyed seeing him Dusty and I had a great day that Sunday. He was a wonderful man and true friend! I love you Tony!!!*
