“ The cliché is that we remember someone as a “wonderful person” in memoriam. In Mr. Tony’s case though, it is true in every sense. He was truly a wonderful man and a grace to have on this earth. I have always thought how fortunate his children are for being lucky enough to have him as a dad. It seemed that everyone knew Mr. Tony. He touched so many people’s lives in a positive way. I will never forget him.
