“ Passionate people are loved by others because of the love they create. Tony had a way of lighting people up...naturally. It was impossible not to crack when he made you want to laugh. Every-time I think of him I can feel the light inside... a little dimmer, but still there. I can feel that light in all his friends and family as we surround his Carmita and Anthony with support and love. He may not be here, but he ain't gone

“ I am so sorry. Tony was always good to us and always stopped in just to say Hi. Gonna miss him. Loved when he would blow his horn and hollar Hi!!! Always smiling.

“ Tony was the life of the party; everyone was aware when he walked into the room. He possessed a giving spirit, always willing to listen and offer help. He loved his family and friends. He never met a stranger as he talked to anyone and everyone. And, he always had a story to tell. To sum it up, he was one of the most colorful young men to have stepped into our family.

Tony loved Carmen and Anthony while here on earth and I have no doubt he will forever be watching over them.

He will be missed by many.

Rest in peace, Tony

*Carmen and Anthony, my prayers for peace and healing continue.
Love,
Aunt Joy*

“ Anthony I’ve been knowing you since grammar school (St.Louise in Arabi) that’s over 35 years of knowing u! I’m at a lost for words! Last time I saw u I was getting gas in harahan and you looked at me and said Jamie girl give me hug! We laughed! You were a good man Tony! Heaven has definitely gained someone special! I’m so sad I’ll never get to see ur face again! I know ur watching over ur son and wife! U loved them dearly! Hold a spot up there for me buddy! RIP and I hope ur son and wife know ur watching over them! And don’t want them sad! Love ya Tony. I’m just can’t grasp ur actually gone!
