Antoinette Madelyn Harris Feliciano

R.I.P. 1943-2020

With profound sadness we announce the death of Ann “MawMaw” Feliciano, a loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister and friend who passed away on Friday, March 30, 2020. She left us at the age of 77 due to complications of a stroke 2 years earlier. She was born, raised, lived a full life and passed away in the New Orleans Metro area. Ann had the biggest heart you’d ever meet and a contagious smile that often erupted in a room full of laughter. She was an amazing cook, a lover of puppies and family gatherings, and a dedicated and life-long hair stylist. She was such a fighter, and battled many health complications with a strong, positive and loving demeanor. Even in her later years, she could be found out dancing, enjoying the simple things in life and embracing every possible moment with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Loving mother of her belated daughter Melissa Feliciano-Bivona, who passed away shortly after her stroke. Greatly missed and survived by her son Joseph Feliciano Jr. (Susan). Grandmother of Heidi Castaliana (Shoghi), Jherrica Bree Feliciano (Winston Pineda), Logan Joseph Crowley and Madelyn Ann Crowley. Sister of Jack Harris and Betty DiGiovanni. Great-grandmother of Jordan Bree Guillory, Bailey Ann Bergeron and Ryder Joseph Pineda. All whom loved her dearly and will never forget her charm, grace, wit, and undying love and care for them.

She will be forever in our thoughts and dearly missed by many.

"I've lived a life that's full

I traveled each and every highway

But more, much more than this

I did it my way" ~ Frank Sinatra

“ I could always count on calling Aunt Ann and Uncle Joe's house every Christmas as a child and young lady to pass the phone around and share joyful hellos. No matter the situation, she always made me feel warm and welcomed during visits and always wore a smile. I can still hear her laugh, her slight rasp in her voice, and I'll always remember that accent in the way she would say, 'yeah, me too.' When God gently carried her to heaven, His paradise gained a precious and beautiful soul. You're loved and will be missed, Aunt Ann. Joey, please know that you made your mother's life so bright and special in ways beyond your knowledge. She was so proud of you and always bragged about your hard work. You are a true blessing to her. Sending my deepest condolences and hoping that you feel her presence and love often. Sincerely, Jackelyn

“ There are so many things I can say about this amazing woman. She was such an amazing GODMOTHER to me. Growing up my "Annie" had me over playing with Melissa whenever I wanted to come over. She was never too tired to put up with the two of us. I will miss her smile and laugh. Her laugh was so infectious. I will miss her dearly! I love ya Aunt Ann!

“ When someone you love becomes a memory, that memory becomes a treasure. Miss Ann had such a sweet soul. She loved dancing and singing, especially when Joey sang her favorite song to her. You could see the happiness and pride in her face. She was so much fun to be around. She will truly be missed but will live on forever in our hearts. RIP Miss Ann.
