“ My Uncle was a happy spirited man . He lived a long life but always asked if we thought he'd live to be 100.? He didn't make it to 100 but sure came close. I loved to listen to him play his harmonica ❤️ Miss you Uncile Arro

“ Uncle Arro, I am blessed to have shared the past years building memories of you that I will forever cherish!
Your love of music, the way you played your harmonica, God Bless America was my favorite .
I'll remember our walks finding money that just happened to be on the ground then getting a Hawaiian Punch and a snack with what we found .
Your love of your beer and your funny rhymes. I'm ready, ready for spaghetti with the meatballs ! And asking everyone if we tonight you'd live to be 100? And then saying, If the good Lord says I will, I will! If he says I won't, I won't .
Well, I guess it wasn't his will for you to live to be 100 but you almost made it to 91 ! You outlived all your siblings and I pray your last years were comfortable .
I enjoyed watching old movies when I'd visit or going to get ice cream or a burger. You loved strawberry ice cream, and I loved how when I'd ask you if it was good your answer was always "Prima, Prima " !
I can go on and on but these are just a few ...
I love you and will miss you!
Rita
