“ May God bless you Ms. Audrey and your beautiful family. You was always a warm and welcoming soul. You opened your home to us neighborhood kids and we spent countless hours playing Barbies, jax, Monopoly, chase and a multitude of activities under your watchful eye. You filled our childhood with joy and sweet memories that will endure forever. May you now be richly blessed for your kindness. With fond remembrance

“ RIP Ms. Audrey, you were always so genuinely kind to me & my family. It was always a pleasure to see you at Wendy & Wayne's house. Rest easy, together again, with Mr. Fred!

“ Miss Audrey was my mother's best friend from their childhood days. She was mom's bridesmaid and like an aunt to me. Mr. Fred would grow mustard greens and bring a load of them to our house. He would pull out his pocket knife and teasingly say he would cut my pigtails off. My condolences to the family sent with love.
