“ Our Family has only had the pleasure of knowing Bambi for about the past five years but we came to know that she was truly one of God's Angels. As life turns the tables on you and you become caregivers for your parents, the only piece of mind you have each day is knowing that someone like Bambi is taking care of them and loving them like her own. That is what she did each and every night for us, through hurricanes, floods and anything else you could think of that could arise. She did it with patience, kindness and LOVE as deep as if it were her own parents or loved ones! We will miss her "hello" when she walked in the door with her comfy slippers sometimes to work the night shift with them. It is truly a special gift to care for the elderly and she had that gift. She was God's angel on Earth but now we know that she is God's Angel in Heaven! She will be greatly missed but we were blessed to have her in our lives and most importantly my parents were truly blessed. Thank you Bambi for all you have done!

Our condolences and prayers are with Bryan and her family! We know that she loved those grandbabies and they will miss her! However, if you can find any comfort know that she has earned her reward in Heaven!

*Sincerely,
The Girardot Family (Bob, Beverly, Brian, Phyllis, David, Laura and Aileen)*

“ On Sunday a fabulous & dear high school friend left this earth unexpectedly. She had a heart and a personality bigger than Texas and a laugh that was contagious. Her wit was quick and her sense of humor was amazing. I could talk about memories and share crazy stories of time spent together for hours. If she loved you, you knew it, if she didn't you likely knew that too.

In high school she was a member of one of my favorite teams. No it wasn't the Tigers. Many of you knew the name of the team. It was called "Bambi, Gwen & Rachael". You rarely saw one without the other. Their love for each other was fierce, their bond unbreakable. I was so grateful & blessed to be friends with all of them.

Bambi loved god, her husband Bryan, her family & grandchildren, her friends and she adored her beautiful dogs. I deeply admired her passion & heart for caring for the elderly and their families. She treated them as if they were her own.

As unexpected & heartbreaking as it was to hear the news of her passing on Mother's Day, I found it ironic that she left us on that particular day. You see there were 2 amazing women that Bambi loved more than anyone, her wonderful Mom Wanda, who she lost very young and her beloved Granny. What a wonderful gift she gave them both for Mother's Day! I know there was a reunion & a celebration that words just can't describe.

You will be greatly missed here my dear friend, but one day we'll walk the beaches of heaven & catch up right where we left off. I love you Bambi Kay and I'll never be able to see a pair, or say "Dear Foams" without thinking of you.

Godspeed. 💕💕

Her loss really drives home the point that tomorrow isn't promised. Today is all we have, make the most of it & let those you love know it.

* I just ask that you lift a prayer if you will for Bryan & her family. Their loss is great. Thanks.*
