Berta Vigoa Diaz, age 86, passed away peacefully in her home surrounded by family on Saturday, August 16, 2025, at 5:54 a.m. Berta was born on July 12, 1939, in Pinar del Río, Cuba, and in 1968 courageously immigrated to the United States, where she made her home in Kenner, Louisiana. She was the beloved daughter of the late Maria Martinez and Luis Vigoa. She now joins her parents in eternal rest, along with her siblings Josefa Vigoa, Cleotilde Vigoa, Feliciano Vigoa, and Jose Vigoa. She is survived by her brothers Caro Vigoa, who resides in Cuba, and Mario Vigoa of Miami, Florida. Berta was the devoted mother of Jose “Tito” Diaz, Miriam Diaz, and Maria “Carmen” Diaz, and the late Sandra Diaz. She was a cherished grandmother to Raul J. Diaz, Byron A. Diaz (Nacole Nurdin Diaz), Josh Diaz, Melissa G. Thomas (Brent A. Thomas), Cristina Hatheway Rivas, Daniella A. Hatheway (Dillon Busher), and Jonathan D. Mims. Rivas, and Solomon J. Busher. Her legacy extends even further with the joy of her four month old great-great-grandson, Vincent Thomas Pollet. Berta’s life is one of a Cuban immigrant turned American success. A skilled seamstress, she began her career at Joe Gemelli’s Men’s Clothing store before opening her own alteration shop, Diaz Alterations, in Metairie,

Louisiana. For 40 years, she proudly owned and operated the beloved local shop, building a reputation for her talent, dedication, and care for her customers.

She will be remembered for her calm, patient, and kind demeanor, balanced with the strength and determination of a headstrong, career-driven woman. Berta found joy in music, cherished her novellas, and loved to dance. Above all, she lived for her family and carried herself with grace and perseverance that inspired all who knew her.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt gratitude to Compassus Hospice and the clinical team who provided Berta with compassionate care during her time on service. “ One of my favorite memories with Tía Bertha was the first time I ever tried a McDonald’s ice cream sundae. I don’t remember if we were waiting to pick up Cristina and Daniella, but I do remember it was just the two of us one day. She was driving, and she stopped at McDonald’s and bought us both sundaes. We sat together, talking and enjoying our ice cream. As a little girl, I was so happy, it was my very first sundae, and sharing that simple moment with her made it one of the best experiences I’ll never forget.
