“ I had the wonderful pleasure of meeting Betty over 5 years ago along the window pews of St. Philip Neri Catholic Church. I have been giving homebound communion the last few years especially after Hank passed away on Saturday morning in her home.. This is why I am a pew minister and believe in a pew ministry. Betty was a kind, beautiful person. She shared her wisdom with me and gave me more memories for me to shared that wisdom with others. It is more than I could ever give to her. She was a pleasure to talk to and my regards to Richard. May she rest in peace.

“ So sorry for your loss. May God be with her family and especially Richard in this sad time. Remembering the good times and, yes, she was a very talented needlepoint crafter.
