“ Mom, I know heaven received the best angel ever! This is so hard for me. Please watch over me & let me know you are with me. I need that so so much. You are In heaven now with all that love you & you love also. I will miss you & love you with all my heart forever. I will see you when God calls me home. Bunches of Hugs & Kisses! I am truly blessed God picked you to be my mother. I will never forget. I Love You with all my heart. May You Rest In Peace Mom. Your Daughter -

“ Oh my, what can I say about Miss Billie? She was such a cool lady. She was a force to be reckoned! I've known her for 30 years now, yes.....1984. I will always remember one of her famous sayings. Kathy & Debra grew up with & lived it, like when they had to sleep with curlers on their head....."You have to suffer to be beautiful" lol! Even my husband says it on occasion. Miss Billie was so smart, witty, no nonsense & had a great sense of humor. I've always had great respect for her. She was a lady & I will never forget her. You did your time Miss Billie & deserve to be with the Angels. Rest In Peace, Lovely One ?

“ words can't explain how much I will miss my sunshine.she was my motivation to succeed,and have hope,a sweet angel with a heart of gold who's always been my role model. She filled my life with joy everyday for 28 yrs.and won the golden gram award of my heart. I will miss her so much. Now I hope she can reunite with all the people she loved and lost. And mama xoxoxo R.I.P.Grammy

“ At family gatherings when I was a kid I would always hunt for whatever dish Aunt Billie had cooked. I loved her roast beef for the poboy! Despite the health problems she faced in recent years, she was tough and remained a real lady through all of them. While going through some old pictures of the Windham gang, I remember thinking how pretty she was.

“ One of my favorite memories of Aunt Billie is that she was one of the "traveling aunts" that came to all of our weddings. They would pile in a car and travel to celebrate with their family. The aunts knew the value of family and cherished the time together. We will always cherish you Aunt Billie. Love Kelly
