“ My first memory of Bonnie was when I was 4 or 5 years old. I think it was a holiday or maybe after Rachel was born, and we had a lot of family over at the yellow house in Zachary. I was playing Barbies. I had a department store counter, lots of clothes and several dolls. Bonnie came in and sat on the floor with me to play. I was wowed! An actual adult sat on the floor with me to play pretend! I knew then that she was an amazing lady! And that my older sister had a pretty awesome mom. I've got plenty other happy memories of her, but that is my favorite and I still remember it like yesterday! Thank you Bonnie for playing with me that day and making me feel seen. I wish you peace in your afterlife! You will be deeply missed.
