

Candie Caruso Marino

August 5, 1974 - June 2, 2016

Candie Caruso Marino, age 41, entered into heavenly peace on the morning of June 2, 2016. Born in New Orleans on August 5, she resided in Metairie the past thirty years. Candie was preceded in death by her son Austin Blackford, and grandparents, Gloria and Michel Caruso. She is survived by her young son, Dominic Marino, spouse Philip Marino, her loving parents, Becky Corliss and Thomas "Toby" Caruso, stepmother Laura, grandmother Dorothy Herbert, brothers Johnny, Justin, and sister Angel. Candie is also survived by aunts and uncles, Lynda Caruso Vitry (Roland), Michel Caruso (Sheila), Robert Caruso, James Caruso (Jeannie), Missy Lattuca, Terry Cormier, James Cormier; and a large number of loving family and friends that God graced within her path of life. Candie will be remembered and greatly missed as a gracious gift that the Lord lent to all who knew her. She held the heart of an angel. Her sudden death touches all, yet her loving soul is no longer struggling, but resides in heaven with those who went before her. Candie would want Dominic to connect everyday with the brilliancy of his own spirit and come to recognize that challenges in the path are not always obstacles; they are the paths where Jesus will walk aside him while his mother observes from above.

“ So deeply saddened and just lost for words to hear of your passing. I will never forget all the great crazy times we had with Kim making us laugh every moment! The best laugh I ever had was when you Kim and I skipped school and Kim crashed my motorcycle into my parents house on a wheelie and literally rode it up the garage door...we rolled on the ground laughing forever till we could finally catch our breath....then we finally checked on poor Kim...we had some kinda fun the three of us!!!..gonna miss ya! You were always a great friend and an angel on earth...now you're an angel in heaven...my deepest condolences to your husband ,son,mom and dad.
