“ I will truly miss this special man and I am so very sorry I am not there to tell each of the family the wonderful love he shared over the years. His family was his world and his special canine companions that shared his loving care. My love and prayers are with all of you and I hope to see you later and tell you face to face with a hug. Remember he loved and cared for each of you and brought so much joy into all our lives. He was a loving example of all good things and I will miss our times of eating seafood and sharing stories and experiences! Take care and toast his life - that's what he would have wanted.

All my love and hugs, Charlene
