“ Carl was my best buddy from the time we were old enough to walk between our houses, about three blocks, in Berryhill, OK. We spent a lot of time fishing the creek that we knew best that ran from the Arkansas River to our school, then under the bridge, and on to the cattle pond west of the church.

“ Well Cheryl, I have been knowing you for at least 35 years. I remember going to your house when you lived in Ormond and meeting your parents. You mom and dad were the nicest people and so soft spoken. Just remember you dad will always be with you and around you and know that he loves you. I am here for you. Love ya my friend, Michele
