“ Dear Reverend, brother, sister and all family members,

Your father's smile is the smile of a man with inner joy. May the joy that he brought to you and your families be a source of special memories as his joy continues on in each of you.

“ Randy,
My prayers are with you and your family. Not much can be said to take away the pain, however I can assure you that your sorrow is important to God and He knows your pain just like your dad would know if something was not well with you.
The Bible says God saves our tears in a bottle, not sure why, but I believe it is because He remembers what it was like to be human too.
You were so good to us when my mom died and we could never repay that graciousness.
I can pray and support you and your family, knowing your dad is probably in heaven with all his past family having a great big family reunion surrounding the Throne of Grace.
Blessings for your pain to turn into sweet memories.
