Although we were cousins, I didn't know Carmen as an adult. We used to visit as children. She looks just like her mother. I know the pain you are feeling on the loss of your sister as we just lost our brother Frank. May their souls rest in peace.

I remember when I was about 5yrs old going to visit my grandparents in San Patricio. Carmen and all who were there,would play School and Antie Carmen was always the Teacher, Antie Bernice was always the Principal I had so much fun ,I was actually in Gindergarden@ the time. My Grandparents had a larger family so it was always a great place to stay when I would visit. My Dad Basil would stop in Hondo N.M. and ask Who wants to go with me or your Mom I ALWAYS picked My Dad's house And always had fun...RIP Antie Carmen I will always remember.....
