

Carol Wright Bellow

August 29, 1933 - June 27, 2026

Carol Wright Bellow passed away peacefully at her home on June 27, 2026, at the age of 92, with her daughter Karen at her side. Carol was preceded in death by her husband, Clayton Bellow, Sr., her parents, George H. Wright and Marion Wright Caradona; and her daughter Kim E. Bellow. She is survived by her children, Karen Bellow, Kathy Fairbanks (Joseph), Kendy Martinez (Miguel), Kerri Steger (Edward), Clayton Bellow, Jr. (Stephanie), Kristie Bellow, and her sister Jane Tarleton. Carol was also a proud grandmother of 18 grandchildren and a great-grandmother of 16 as well as an Aunt to numerous nieces and nephews.

A graduate of Sacred Heart High School, Carol was incredibly active in her youth, playing basketball, cabbage ball, and volleyball, as well as playing the trumpet in the school band. Her love for sports continued throughout her life; she was an avid fan of the New Orleans Saints, Pelicans, and LSU Tigers, and she spent many years coaching all of her children in various sports. She also loved to dance and listen to music.

A devout Roman Catholic, Carol's deep faith was the cornerstone of her life. In 1977, alongside her husband, she led a small group that helped found Our Lady of Grace Roman Catholic Church in Kenner. She loved her family passionately, and her devotion to the Latin Tridentine Mass and the Blessed Mother was her whole life.

Carol was a kind, compassionate, loveable, supportive, and funny woman. She was an extraordinary person who truly left her mark on society, and everyone who knew her was blessed to have her in their lives.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that traditional Latin Masses be said in her honor.
