

Cecil Carmel Alleman

July 18, 1951 - November 19, 2017

Cecil “Cisco” Alleman on Sunday, November 19, 2017 our brother Cisco went to be with the Lord. He is survived by his son, Chad Alleman; grandchildren, Chad Jr. and Demi Grace; mother, Marie H. Alleman; brothers, Charlie, George (Cindy), Larry and Doug Alleman; sister-in-law, Betty Alleman; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his father, Carmel “Floyd” Alleman; brother, Floyd “Gizmo” Alleman, Sr. ; sister, Angel Ann Alleman; and nephew, Marcus Alleman.

Cisco moved to Metairie from Lutcher, LA at the tender age of 5 years old in the mid 50's along with his family. He attended East Jefferson High School and then embarked upon a lifetime of hands on work, at which he always excelled. He was gifted with his hands and they served him well.

Cisco was an accomplished auto mechanic, a skilled carpenter and electrician. He was a successful electrical contractor for many years and owned and operated Alleman Electric. He taught his grandson, Chad Jr. his craft and shared his many life experiences with him. He taught him the value of having a trade and a skill set that would serve him well going forward.

He loved life, music and a good party. He lived in the French Quarter for 20 plus years and his nickname “Cisco” manifested itself during that time period and he embraced it. He was truly “The Cisco Kid” reincarnated. He ran high and hard in the saddle.

We will always remember Cisco “turning wrenches” as he restored and customized his 1956 Chevy, riding his BSA motorcycle with the chopper style steering bars and his love of James Brown's music and how he could mimic his dance moves. Every time we hear the recorded song, "The Cisco Kid Was A Friend Of Mine" by War playing we will think of Cisco. That song became his anthem.

Cisco loved his family and friends and had a special love for his grandchildren, Chad Jr. and Demi Grace. His grandson said it best, "Paw Paw was a cat with a million lives".

We love you Cisco. You will be missed, "Rest in peace dear brother".

“ So very sad to hear of Cecil's passing. Memories of him go so far back. Before he was my brother-in-law he was the cutest, slightly older guy in the neighborhood I grew up in. Could build a car from a pile of scraps. He had a natural talent for winning hearts and won mine over long ago. He was one of a kind and I truly loved him. I don't know anyone that lived as fearlessly as he did. Everything was in the moment I know that there was a deep heart in him and he struggled with feeling like he wasn't what everyone thought he should be. But, that smile was always there for everyone. Wish I had seen him just once more to thank him for considering me family from the start and for all of the great and even the not so great memories. Rest well Cecil. All of us will see each other again eventually. That, I truly believe. See you then. Colleen
