“ Cesar, Vickie, Marcy and family, there are so many ways to express my sadness to the lost of Little Cesar (Son, Brother, Uncle, Brother in law, Grandfather). He was always a very respectful child. The Lord always know what's best for us even when we don't understand. No one can say they know what you're going through unless they have experienced it. It takes time, I pray for the family, and I wish that things will eventually come easier. But for now hold on to Gods unchanging heart and he will see you through.

I love you guys and you will be in my prayers.

Don Winchester a friend of the family. Keep the faith.

“ Mr. Cesar/Mrs. Vickie and Marcy:

I am so Sorry for the loss of your Son and Brother. There are No words that I can express to help make the pain and sadness or even the feeling of emptiness go away at this time. Only the passage of Time and Much Prayer will help us with this Cross. I leave you with this, although it has been a good number of years since I've seen y'all or said hello I wanted to let you know just how much my friend Cesar meant to me and my Family. He was like having another Brother in the Nicoll family and just like in any family We laughed, We cried, We fought and We forgave, but mostly we played endless practical jokes on each other and we laughed until our stomachs would hurt. I'm gonna miss that laugh and that smile, but most of all I am gonna miss him a whole lot, my friend, My Brother.

Until then, may God bless you and keep you.

Mr. & Mrs. Billy Gallardo, Jr. & family - June 23, 2016 at 10:38 PM

“ Mrs. Vickie and Mr. C,

My heart mourns. I have so much to say and I don't know how to say it. Cesar was my best friend. Although I have not spoken with him much in the past few years, every time I have it was like we had never been apart. I have so many memories of us working at Winn-Dixie, goofing off on the job, Cesar writing "HI" in the jars of peanut butter, and putting it back on the shelf for some unsuspecting customer. Driving around in my Mustang on hot summer nights uptown going to Shanahan's. Going rabbit hunting with Uncle Buddy on Saturdays in October and duck hunting with my dad in November and December, cutting up the whole time. We never argued, all we did was have fun. Cesar was the "Dynamic" to my duo. He was a true friend and a prince of a man. Most people do not have very many best friends in life, but Cesar was one of mine and his candle was put out too early. My friend will be dearly missed. I love you, Cesar, until we meet again. . . "No No Cesar". Save me a seat at the big table, I will be there one day to enjoy your company again.

Love,

Billy Gallardo, Jr.
