“ My sincerest condolences go out to Charlie's loved ones. Although it's been 30 years since I last saw him, he, Carla, Mrs Lidia & Mr Charlie are forever in my childhood memories. Charlie was 5 years older than me and when I was either 9 or 10, he had the patience to teach me how to play chess on his Dad's beautiful wooden chess table, how to play football and how to throw a cast net in the stagnant Belle Pointe canal behind our houses. May the good Lord take you by the hand as you rest in peace old pal.

“ Charlie, we go way back my brother. You were always there for me whenever I needed anything. You always had a smile on ur face and never complained about anything. You were always there with open arms or an arm around one of us saying how we were all one big family. I have so many memories of you from tailgating at LSU games or watching them at the bar, trips to the beach in Florida, the many crawfish boils, the last supper that you, Dilapi, and myself had the night Katrina hit, and many many more. I am truly heartbroken without you here and you will always have a place in my heart. I cherish the great friendship that we had my friend. Crawfish boils will never be the same without you. Until we meet again one day, I love you and thank you for being in my life and being such an amazing friend and person.

“ From the moment I met you I knew I had a friend for life. From the stories you'd tell that I could listen to over and over to the crazy things you'd say to get me to laugh when I was having a bad day, But most of all I could never thank you enough for opening your house to me as if we were family & giving me a home when I felt as though I had no one. You were always there no matter what. I still can't believe you're gone. Miss & love you always Chawlee.

“ Charlie, where to begin?!? You were one of the best friends I could have ever asked for. You made my life better just being in it. The amount of memories are endless. I cannot pick 1 or even 10. You were our protector, our brother, our go to crawfish boiler, our LSU game watching/tailgating partner, our adventure driver and our life of the party! Your smile will never be forgotten. You were always up for anything crazy that we wanted to do. You always remembered everyone’s birthdays and always answered our calls whether for guidance, help or fun. I will miss you forever. You have taken a piece of my heart that can never be replaced. I love you, my friend. Until we meet again. Please watch over all of us, and especially Amy who is now and forever our sister. Oh, we’ve named ourselves “Charlie’s Angels”...I bet you love that!!! I can here your laugh! Cheers!!

“ I love you so much Charlie and I cannot believe you are gone. You were the father and brother I never had. Words cannot express how broken hearted the rest of us are. The world is a little darker without you. I will never forget the beautiful memories you left me with nor how you were ALWAYS there any time I was in need, including my mom. You spent holidays with us, and were the one who ALWAYS rallied the troops for someone's birthday. If only I had a dollar for every time you put your arm around someone's shoulder (mine included) and said, "Hey, we're family. Anything you need you just let me know. " You gave your whole heart selflessly to anyone who was lucky enough to be in your life. It made my heart sing knowing Amy was the love in your life. I am so grateful to her. I have no doubts in my mind that you are in Heaven smiling that beautiful smile and waiting for the rest of us. Until then, I am proud to be one of your Charlie's Angels.

Dream on my brother...Love, Maria Evans Revere
