“ Maybe I could have been the new guy on the block that day as it was a gathering for the families of the KPD; however, that day I was introduced to many people would become long standing friends for the future....Cheryl was in that bunch...from that moment on we all would be considered family...we traveled together, shared our families with each other and helped us each walk through good times and bad....She will always be in our memories as a reminder that FRIENDS ARE FOREVER...AND as for many of us we say "WE LOVE YOU SO MUCH AND DON'T EVER LOOSE THE CARDS...CAN'T PLAY WITHOUT 'EM"
