“ My name is John Bargnesi, I met Chet on June 21, 2021.

At the closing, when I purchased a fishing camp next to Chet, the previous owners said go meet Chet first, he will take care of you, and that's exactly what he did.

What Chet didn't know, is that I was fresh out of a divorce, and was still struggling. I shared that with him, and he simply said "you'll feel different soon", so I trusted him. My next trip to the Bayou from Arizona, I felt different, every trip I checked in with Chet and gave him the positive update.

He has given countless gifts to my children, every time they went to see him, they came back with something that he had given them (including some of the best fishing spots around the Bayou).

These are prep school kids, he taught them the other side of life (NO BOOKS and NO GRADES). My kids would invite their friends to the camp and hang out with Chet. The friends went back, and all they could talk about was Chet, and what a GOAT he is, he is a legend at Tempe Prep Academy.

When they came to my house in AZ, they ask about him, he touched them too. We will never forget Chet Kelly and will think of him when we have tough times and how it is guaranteed that we will feel different as time passes.

We are beyond grateful that we knew Chet and everything that he did for us.

We love you, Chet!
