He graduated from LSU Cum Laude and earned his masters in marketing, being recognized first in his class. He was also named outstanding business student several times. He was a member of Delta Tau Delta.

Todd aka, 'Trout' as known by his fraternity brothers, was an avid LSU and Saints fan. He moved to Atlanta in the marketing field after graduating from LSU. He returned to New Orleans before Katrina, working in the commercial insurance field and later moved to Austin to work in the ITT and insurance fields. “ I was so sorry to hear about the passing of my old friend Todd. We were close friends in elementary school and played sports together at Driftwood/Galatas playground. We went to different high schools and colleges but whenever our paths crossed we always reminisced about the glory days when bicycles were our primary mode of transportation.

Miss Donna, Mr. Sonny and Allyson, please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of your son and brother. He will be missed and remembered by so many people. May our Lord comfort all who mourn. "Blessed are all those who mourn, for they shall be comforted." Matthew 5:4

“ I miss you every day, Todd. You've been a best friend my entire life and always considered you a brother. You and your family always treated me as one of their own, even though we drove your dear mother crazy on countless occasions (sorry Donna Gayle). I feel so fortunate for your time in Austin which is further testimony to our long lasting friendship. We just never seemed to stay out of each other's business. We honor your memory today and every day forward. I miss you and I love you, buddy. We all do.
