“ Joe so sorry for your loss. I did not know your mother but if she was a nice as you and Nana she was a beautiful person. My prayers are with you and your family.

“ *Theo,. I am so very sorry for your loss! Connie was such a warm and special friend. I will always remember Connie square dancing with that smile and infectious laugh. Also to be remembered were the years we spent playing crazy polka games and sharing stories of our families. Not to be forgotten were the years we were at St. Rock park watching Theo coaching football--and what a wonderful coach he was!

“ Martha and I wish to express our condolences in the passing of Connie. And while we will not be able to attend Connie's services, we wish all to know, especially Theo, that we share your loss. Both Connie and Theo will always stand out as exemplary Christian participants in their community, giving of themselves whenever needed and overcoming obstacles that would have defeated those of lesser faith.

Connie, sweetheart, rest in peace. You merit same.

Theo, stand tall, as I know you will. You will overcome.
