“ I've known Gus since high-school. Met him thru his sister Debbie. He and his friend Earl were my bodyguards throughout my high school years. Had one on each side of me. Lol He later married my sister, Leanna. They had 3 beautiful children. Josh, April, and Chase. Although their marriage ended, we have kept him in our lives, by including him, his wife Laurie, and her children in all of our holiday gatherings. My mom and dad loved Gus like their own son. Me and my siblings, loved him like a brother, and our children still call him Uncle Gus. There will never be another Gus. He had a heart of gold! We will miss you Gus. Fly high with the Angels. Til we meet again. Love you. 💔

“ Oh my brother. I miss you so much already. My heart is bleeding with thoughts of never seeing you, hugging you, laughing with you or just talking like we always did. My only comfort comes from knowing that you are with the God you served and loved with all of your heart. You made it! You finished your race and are walking on streets of gold with your Savior with that beautiful glowing smile you had. Now more than ever, I want to make heaven my home so we can see each other again. I love you and will miss you so much brother. You were always my heart and will always be. 💕💕

“ To say I am devastated of learning of Gus's passage would be an understatement. Although time and circumstances have separated us he will live on as one of my brothers. Having Gus in my life and that of all of my family and all of us at Wechem he was a true blessing. My heart is in sorrow. Gus I love you brother!!! To his family, you have lost a true gem of a man. We are here for you.

“ My family and I are so very sorry for your loss...we spent a lot of time these past couple of days, remembering our various times spent with Gus through the years...every sweet memory brought a smile and laughter.

Heaven really is growing sweeter every day! The Scripture teaches us that “to die is gain”, and Gus has “gained” and is now enjoying his Heavenly reward.

May each of you find peace in every beautiful memory...until you meet again!

Love and prayers always,
