“ I volunteered with Dan at the National World War II Museum. We shared many happy conversations about old cars, Cruisin' the Coast, and veterans in general. I still volunteer at the Beyond All Boundaries movie. He loved to talk to people and that is the job at the theater. I always got a kick out of seeing his commercials on TV. We will all miss your good humor, Dan. God Bless, and Rest in Peace.

“ Danny will be greatly missed. He was such a dear and gentle man. Not to say, that he could not also be the life of the party and wise in his business dealings.

He was our best and favorite neighbor for a time and the neighborhood was never the same after Dan and Joani moved away.

I will always remember him bringing us dozens of Stone Crab claws back from a business trip. An excuse for a party at the Cantor's! As if we needed an excuse.

A visit with the Cantor's in LA comes to mind, when Danny insisted that I eat a raw oyster! I did and love them to this day!

Danny, you were one of a kind, and kind to every one!

Love and miss you,

Ellen Musser

Fred sends his sympathy too, Joani.
