12 days ago on Monday, January 3, 2022 I lost my soulmate, my confident, my dear, sweet husband, Daniel Joseph "Dan" Branighan.

Beloved husband of Joyce K. Branighan. Loving father of Christopher Daniel Branighan (Tara). Grandfather of Gracen Marie Branighan. Son of the late Dorothy Tyce Branighan and Patrick Aubrey Branighan. Uncle to many nieces and nephews.

Saying good bye wasn't easy because he went to be our Lord Jesus so suddenly. 43 years of marriage now seems like it was only yesterday that we stood together and promised our love to one another as husband as wife.

He was a special man, a dedicated man, a man who loved life. His goal was to always be there to take care of his family no matter the cost. This was so true because he was always working and he loved his job at the local Winn Dixie grocery store along with his Winn Dixie family.

This is where his last breath was taken and his life ended.

Dan always found a way of making people smile and laugh. He was a serious yet funny individual and there will never be anyone like him.

To MANY he was a dear friend who would refer to him as Daniel or Dan or with respect for his age, Mr. Dan. To a few he was a caring Uncle Danny. To ONE he was a wonderful father to our only son, Chris. To our only granddaughter he was simply known as PAW PAW, and let me tell you.... SHE

WAS HIS PRINCESS.

To me he was my “Once in a Lifetime”, “My Love of my Life”, and there will never be another to fill the void in my life. May you rest in peace, honey until we meet again.

I love you with all my heart always and forever.

Your loving wife,

Joyce
