“ My condolences to the family. Mr. Handal was one of my beloved patients. I shared many stories with him as his night nurse and despite he was fighting his battle with cancer he would always tell me to take care of myself and give me such positive comments. He is in the comforting hand of God now and its a pleasure to say I knew him personally.

“ My prayers got to his family for their loss. I only knew David for about 7 years. He was very devoted to God and his work. I (we) will miss him very much.
