He volunteered much of his spare time to the Boy Scouts of America, where he was both a leader and badge counselor to Troop 370 and Troop 371. It was in Troop 371 where David earned the rank of Eagle Scout at the age of 14 in 1986. David also enjoyed spending most of his time outdoors while camping and hiking.

David is predeceased by his grandparents Dean and Bessie Keith, Frank Neal, and Elbert and Nancy Kornegay. Dave wished to spend his retirement years in the Forestry Service. Its sad that you didn't get to realize that dream. I'll have a tree planted today in your honor ole friend. I know you loved being in their company. So long Chevy Kid.

“ Knowing Brook meant knowing Dave-what an admirable love! I so often lived vicariously through their love and life. The service is undoubtedly going to be a well-deserved tribute to such. ❤️

“ From your Aunt Sherry. When you were little we would read The Three Little Pigs over and over. When it was your turn to read to me , your had your own version. Instead of saying “not by the hair of my chinny- chin- chin, you would say “ not by my hairs”. This would always send me laughing . One night I managed to tape you telling the story of the Three Little pigs. As I handle the tape over to your mon, once again I busted out laughing, just as I am now. I know Linda will share the tape with your kids and grandkids. It will definitely fill the room with laughter just as it did for me. Love always, your Aunt Sherry
