“ David grew up across the alley from my brother and my self. He played baseball with us, and dart ball, and board games. I was fond of him and considered him to be close. I will miss him as well as having had the opportunity ti say, "goodbye". Until we meet again.

Philip Ufnowski - March 29, 2017 at 01:41 PM

“ Sorry I can not be at the funeral tonight due to illness. My doctor ordered me to stay at home and rest. I will miss David as we often talked and argued about sports. Deb, I will keep David & family in my prayers.

“ Your family is in my thoughts and prayers. I would like to share with you a promise from the bible that I hope offers you some comfort in your time of grief. Revelation 21:4 tells us that soon Jehovah our God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. Just as it says in the prayer that Jesus himself gave us, Matthew 6, let your kingdom come let your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. The bible assures us that soon we can look forward to the day that death is no more, that we are reunited with our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death and God's Kingdom rules in a paradise on earth. If you would like to know more about what the bible really teaches about the resurection hope, God's Kingdom and a paradise earth, please visit jw.org

“ I am so sorry for David's untimely passing, my sympathies to the family. David was a wonderful person & someone I considered a friend, not just a co-worker. David had a way of making friends with everyone around him. David will definitely be missed -- the office will not be the same without him.
