“ Debbie was a very dear friend. Debbie and George were always there for us, sharing good times, fun times and hard work. We laughed and cried, celebrated and mourned. She will be missed. She was the Ethel to my Lucy.

Our cousin Debbie was one of the most giving & caring people I've known. She had the heart of a child which I believe is pleasing to God. I feel the loss from this world of this precious one who left us over a week ago and who had such ability to be selfless with a loving heart! So glad she is at peace & rest! May God bless those who cared for her!
