“ Debbie always made you feel welcome in her home..it was where the girls went for pictures before their High School dances, and lots of swim parties and even one long day for a garage sale..When she said "you know you're welcome here anytime"..you knew she was sincere and really meant it. Heaven has such a gracious hostess in Debbie!

“ I met Ms Deborah many years ago at Cherbonnier Elem. She was my sons' teacher. She was a very caring and lovely person. I've always wondered how she was doing, now I know. My Heart goes out to her family. May the Lord be with you knowing that she is in his loving care and not in any more pain.

*I didn't get the honor of meeting you, your son Thomas has told me alot of good things about you...i lost my little brother to the war in 2008, i said a prayer today and in it, i told my little brother you were on your way to heaven to watch out for you and to show you the ropes since he's been there longer.
Now the both of u can just walk around heaven all day.*

“ Memories: three pots on the stove top. One meat, two sides, rolls, cornbread and a pitcher of sweet tea.

last time I saw her I couldn't help but smile, right next to all her cancer medicine was a bottle of nail polish. Mrs Debbie might have been sick, but she never lost her style! I'll miss her terribly.

My heart is heavy with this loss of a very dear friend and mother of Crystal, whom I count as one of my daughters. I will always remember Debbie's accent (sometimes didn't know the words she was saying!), laughter, great potato salad, glass of red wine, her love of my daughter and most importantly, a shoulder to lean on. Debbie helped me through some very difficult times and I will always be grateful. I am so thankful that she is at peace and with our Lord whom she believed in. Save a place by your side Debbie, cause when I enter the golden gates I want you there to welcome me!!

Dale, Scott and Crystal, may God give you comfort and with time may you only have fond memories of Debbie.

All our love, Bob and Susie Stanley
